

2008

Themes:

1. Access to health services from consumer and/or provider perspectives.
2. Cancer prevention, screening, and/or management for lesbian and bisexual women.
3. Creation and maintenance of lesbian and bisexual women's health and wellbeing.
4. Drug and/or alcohol use, control, motivators, supports.

Recipient

Ruth McNair, Department of General practice, The University of Melbourne

“Implementing guidelines for sensitive care of lesbian and bisexual women in general practice.”

Dissemination of guidelines:

McNair RP. A guide to sensitive care for lesbian, gay and bisexual people attending general practice. Endorsed by RACGP in 2012. Available at

<http://www.glhv.org.au/fact-sheet/guide-sensitive-care-lgb-people-attending-general-practice>

Conference presentations:

Annual Meeting of Sexual Health Physicians Queensland, May 2009.

Paper: GLB sensitive care and disclosure of minority sexual orientation

Primary Health Care Research conference, Darwin, July 2010.

Paper: General practice guidelines for the sensitive care of lesbian, gay and bisexual patients.

Australian Lesbian Medical Association Annual conference, Sydney, October, 2010.

Paper: General practice guidelines for the sensitive care of lesbian, gay and bisexual patients.

SHINE (Family Planning SA), Adelaide, 2011

Invited speaker- “Lesbian health- evidence and guidelines”